You Are Not Alone

Excitement and risk are both part of taking long road trips. However, having the right traveling companion can turn a long, boring monotonous journey into adventure. Having someone with whom you can share stories, and behold the beauty of creation enriches the experience. Having someone to help with the fuel and the driving can also be of great help. Perhaps you can remember when having someone else in the car with you to help read the map was extremely beneficial.

In this day and age you can have conversations, even when you are traveling alone. You can text, tweet and/or post your experiences, sharing with as many as you would like. You don’t even have to bother with cumbersome maps; you can use your GPS to get you there. Just remember, a manmade GPS is not always reliable.

Have no fear. The mission that you are embarking on is not one that you have to take alone. God has supplied everything you need for this journey according to His riches in Glory! He has plotted the course, covered the expenses, and has provided you with a fail proof GPS (God’s Providential Sovereignty). In fact, if you agree to be His copilot, God will do the driving. He will drive out fear, doubt, confusion, uncertainty, demons, and anything else that would dare to defy His purpose and plan for your life. And He will keep the tank on full—full of love, joy, peace, rest, contentment, and communication.

The Bible says over and over that if you have a relationship with Christ, then God is with you all the time. He says “I am with you always, to the very end of the age” (Matthew 28:20b NIV). He’s always with you. You’re never really fully alone. Let the Lord lead you on this mission. You are not alone.

Pick up a card and a piece of string and find a comfortable seat. As you read the poem, tie knot in the twine when you read the last line of each verse, the line about not being alone. When you finish the poem, look at your string. It should have five knots in it. Five is the number of grace. Take this string with you. Let it remind you that you are not alone and that God’s grace is truly sufficient.

The mission is possible, because you are not alone.
